RUTH - MARCH 19TH, 2023

Week 2

Icebreaker

What's your favorite flavor of Girl Scout cookie?

Key Passage

Ruth 2:12

"The Lord repay you for what you have done, and a full reward be given you by the Lord, the God of Israel, under whose wings you have come to take refuge!"

Discussion Questions

1. In what ways have you been like Ruth, dutifully picking up the leftover grain from the harvest?
2. In Ruth 2:3, the Bible says, "As it turned out, she was working in a field belonging to Boaz, who was from the clan of Elimelek." How was God moving behind the scenes to set Ruth and Naomi up for a comeback?
3. Have you had a season in your life where God was creating a "as it turned out" moment?
4. In Ruth 2:6, the overseer told Boaz that Ruth "came into the field and remained here until now, except for a short rest in the shelter." Ruth didn't know that the overseer was watching her actions. When is a time in your life where your hard work, which you thought went unnoticed, was rewarded?
5. Who in your life has shown you kindness like Boaz showed to Ruth?
6. Have you shown kindness like Boaz to someone else?
7. How have you seen God's kindness and provision break through in unexpected ways in your life?
8. In Ruth 2:20, Naomi tells Ruth that Boaz "is our close relative; he is one of our guardian-redeemers." Yet in Ruth 1:20-21, she sees only the bitterness in her life. When you take a step back, how have you been able to see major blessings in your life amongst the hard times?
