Week 4

Icebreaker

What's the most meaningful conversation you had during the past week?

Key Passage

Ruth 4:14

"The women said to Naomi: 'Praise be to the Lord, who this day has not left you without a guardian-redeemer. May he become famous throughout Israel!'"

Discussion Questions

1. As Ruth's life shows, the path to happiness and victory, even for someone who's committed to God, isn't always smooth sailing. What are some hard moments you've had in your walk with God?
2. Notice Ruth's reactions in the uneven moments (Ruth 1:10; 1:16-17; 2:2; 3:14). What can you learn from Ruth's responses to apply in your life?
3. Boaz's decision to redeem Ruth played a critical role in the genealogy of Jesus. One decision can make an impact on generations. What big decisions have you made in your life that could have lasting impact beyond your time on earth?
4. What are some big decisions you could face in the coming years that will impact future generations?
5. In what ways do Boaz and his actions remind you of Jesus and His life on earth?
6. By putting Naomi and her needs first, Ruth experienced incredible blessings and redemption. Have you ever seen something play out similarly in your life?
7. There's a direct correlation between the genealogy listed in Ruth 4:18-22 and Matthew 1. Is it meaningful for you to see connections like this between the Old and New Testament? Why or why not?
